Job Description

Director of the Royal Saskatchewan Museum - MUS000217

Employment Type: Permanent Full-time
Location(s) SK--Regina and Area-Regina
Ministry 027 Parks Culture and Sport
Salary Range: $8014 - $10,416 Monthly
Grade: MCP.09.

The Ministry of Parks, Culture and Sport is seeking a highly skilled and energetic individual to become the Director of the Royal Saskatchewan Museum (RSM) within the Stewardship Division. In this role you will help lead the RSM team to further develop the visitor experience at the facilities in Regina, SK and at the T.rex Discovery Centre in Eastend, SK, in addition to promoting the educational mandate of the institution to communities and people throughout the province, and furthering the museum's role in the preservation and interpretation of the province's heritage. This is a challenging and exciting opportunity for an individual with a passion for natural and human history, a commitment to client service and a desire to grow the RSM as one of Canada's premiere museums.

The RSM is continuously looking to attract new visitors while retaining the patronage of past visitors. The Director will promote the current facilities, attract investments, and identify opportunities to ensure the number of visitors continues to grow. The incumbent will establish strong working relationships with peer facilities in other jurisdictions and will continue to provide leadership and help develop the world-class personnel within the Royal Saskatchewan Museum.

Our candidate of choice will have superior interpersonal and communication skills to collaborate, influence, and build relationships. A self-aware, energetic individual who thrives on continuous improvement will succeed in this role.

Your knowledge and experience will include demonstrated leadership skills, in order to achieve the strategic direction and vision for the organization, and to provide leadership and accountability for the changes required to achieve that vision. Experience with business development, strategy development, and change management will be an asset to this position.

The successful candidate will possess the knowledge and abilities that would typically be obtained through the completion of a relevant post-graduate degree in business administration or a museum discipline, combined with management experience in a museum, heritage or cultural institution.

We are committed to workplace diversity.
